RULES ABOUT CLOTHING

All Clothing must be modest. No tank tops, midriff tops, halter-tops, t-shirts with sleeves and/or sides ripped out, or see-through tops. Skin should not be visible between shirt and pants. All pants must be to the knee. NO clothing with alcohol and/or tobacco advertisement or inappropriate wording will be permitted. The camp director may ask you to change if you are deemed immodest or inappropriately dressed.

CAMP DISCIPLINE

First Offense – Campers will go before camp director and senior counselor. Camper will be given verbal warning, rules will be clarified, and meeting will be documented.
Second Offense – Parents will be called in for a conference.
Third Offense – Parents will be asked to pick up camper.
No destruction of property will be tolerated. Parents may be assessed for damages of property. A signed damage waver must be on file for every overnight camper.
Illegal activity will be reported to the proper authorities.

LEAVING THE CAMPGROUNDS

If campers must leave the campground for sports or other activities they must inform the director and sign out. Parents should inform the director and sign the camper back in when they return.

Parents must submit in writing the names of any persons with whom camper will be allowed to leave. The person picking up the camper is responsible for signing the camper out/in and informing the director each time. Identification will be required for any person picking up campers unless known by the director or other adult staff.

Campers are expected to remain on camp premises at all times.

VISITORS

Because of homesickness issues, parents are encouraged to refrain from visits until Wednesday.

ALL visitors MUST check- in with a staff member BEFORE visiting with campers.

- A. Visitors are welcome during meal hours and for the evening hours until bed time. Visitors should make an appropriate donation for meals.
- B. We ask that visitors refrain from visiting during class times and planned recreation times in order to encourage full participation of all campers.
- C. Visitors must comply with all camp rules and are subject to campers' dress code. Camp director reserves the right to ask those who do not comply to leave camp facilities.

MEDICAL INFORMATION

- A. Parents must complete a medications form and the times to be administered for each camper on meds.
- B. Parents must sign a release form for emergency room treatment, and supply name of insurance.
- C. Medical history of campers should be accurate, including family doctor, dentist, and/or eye doctor.
- D. Activities limitations due to medical problems must be indicated.

Financial Responsibility for medical or dental treatment lies with camper's primary insurance. Rolling Hills Bible Camp carries secondary insurance which may pay some expenses after your primary claim. The Rolling Hills Bible Camp, staff, and/or any congregation supporting the camp will not be held responsible for any expenses or liability incurred by accident or illness beyond that covered by insurance.

The elders of the Rolling Hills Church of Christ oversee the Rolling Hills Bible Camp. All staff and teachers are members of area churches of Christ.
